

Correction

In our December issue, several references in the Quill on Scalpel item by Drs. Mark Bernstein, Joseph Bampoe and Abdallah S. Daar (Ethical issues in molecular medicine of relevance to surgeons. Can J Surg 2004;47:414–21) have been updated, as follows.

24. College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta. Research Ethics Review Committee Informed Consent Form template, genetic research studies. Available: www.cpsa.ab.ca/collegeprograms/attachments/Informed%20Consent%20Template%20-Genetic%20Research%20Studies.doc (accessed 2005 Jan 10).
25. Oregon Health and Science University. Genetic Consent Form sample. Available: www.ohsu.edu/research/rda/irb/docs/sample\_forms/gene.doc (accessed 2005 Jan 10).
41. Daar AS, Sheremeta L. The science of stem cells: some implications for law and policy. Health Law Rev 2003;11:5-13.
43. AP. Transcript of Bush's announcement of stem cell policy. The Associated Press 2001; August 9. Available: http://bioweb.usc.edu/courses/2002-fall/documents/bisc150-ca2\_article3.pdf (accessed 2005 Jan 10).
47. Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority. Available: www.hfea.gov.uk/AboutHFEA (accessed 2005 Jan 10).
66. The Bayh–Dole Act: a guide to the law and implementing regulations. Available: www.ucop.edu/ott/bayh.html (accessed 2005 Jan 10).